1.2 These Terms apply to everyone who registers for or attends the Conference (a "Participant").

2. Registration and fees

2.1 Participants register through the online registration form. A registration is confirmed only when the Organiser has received the full fee.
2.2 The fee depends on the participant category and the registration date, as shown on the registration form. Fees are in EUR and include VAT. All bank charges are paid by the Participant.
2.3 The fee covers only the items listed on the Conference website and the registration form. Travel, accommodation, visas and insurance are not included.
2.4 The Organiser may cancel a registration that is not paid by the payment deadline.

3. Cancellation by the Participant

3.1 Cancellations must be sent by e-mail to biosurfactants@ue.wroc.pl.
3.2 Cancellations received by 30 June 2027 are refunded in full. Cancellations received from 30 June to 30 July 2027 are refunded at 50%. No refund is given for cancellations received after 15 July 2027 or for non-attendance.
3.3 A registration may be transferred free of charge to another person from the same institution, provided the Organiser is informed before the Conference.

4. Changes and cancellation by the Organiser

4.1 The Organiser may change the programme, speakers, schedule, venue or format of the Conference.
4.2 If the Organiser cancels the Conference, it will refund the fees paid. If the Conference is postponed or moved online, Participants who do not wish to take part may request a full refund within 30 days of the announcement. This section does not apply where the cancellation, postponement or move online is caused by force majeure (events beyond the Organiser's control, such as an epidemic, natural disaster, war, strike or decision of a public authority).
4.3 Apart from these refunds, the Organiser does not reimburse any costs, such as travel, accommodation or visa costs.

5. Liability

5.1 Participants attend at their own risk. They are responsible for their own travel, health and liability insurance and for their belongings.
5.2 The Organiser is not responsible for the content of presentations and materials provided by Participants, speakers or sponsors, or for services provided by third parties such as hotels and carriers.

5.3 The Organiser's total liability to a Participant is limited to the fee that Participant paid. The Organiser is not liable for indirect loss or lost profits.
5.4 These limitations do not apply to damage caused intentionally or through gross negligence, to personal injury, or where the law does not permit them.

6. Conduct

6.1 Participants must follow the venue rules and the instructions of the Organiser's staff, and treat others with respect.
6.2 The Organiser may exclude a Participant who seriously breaches these rules, without refund. Participants are liable for any damage they cause.

7. Abstracts, photos and recordings

7.1 The submitting author confirms that all authors have agreed to the submission and that the abstract does not infringe the rights of others. The authors grant the Organiser a free, non-exclusive, worldwide licence, unlimited in time, to reproduce the abstract in print and digital form and make it available online in the Conference programme and the book of abstracts, including under a DOI.
7.2 Photos and videos may be taken during the Conference and used to document and promote it. By attending the Conference, Participants agree that their image may be recorded and disseminated for these purposes.

8. Personal data

8.1 Personal data are processed as described in the Privacy Notice.

9. Final provisions

9.1 These Terms are governed by Polish law. Disputes with Participants who are not consumers will be settled by the court competent for the Organiser's registered office.
9.2 The Organiser may amend these Terms. The version in force on the registration date governs the fee and refund for that registration.

These Terms are valid from 17 October 2026.
